1.800.621.3362 or for hearing impaired 1-800-462-7585 (tty)
to register on line: www.FEMA.gov

- 1. Have your social security # available
- 2. Provide your current address
- 3. Provide your primary PRE disaster address. (If you are not residing there currently because of the flood damage)
- 4. Provide phone numbers where someone can reach you.
- 5. Provide the type of insurance coverage you have
- 6. Need total household annual income
- 7. Need to provide your bank account number and ROUTING number from your bank if you want to have disaster assistance funds transferred directly into your bank account.
- 8. A description of your losses that were caused by the disaster

After you've completed your application for assistance, you will receive a FEMA application number. Write down this number and keep it for future reference.

Note: FEMA verifies the name and social security number of those registering for disaster assistance. If the name and social security number on file with the social security administration does not match the information you provide you will be asked to submit a copy of an original document, e.g. marriage license, military ID, tax documents, etc., for proof of identity. A need to review and update identity documentation may cause delays in delivery of assistance.
