IV. Town Mangers Report

1. The Public Works Department retrieved the concrete bench and picnic table that were vandalized last week. Cost to replaced the bench, approximately $600. Anyone with information on who vandalized this Town property please call the Crimeline Hotline at 929-1222.
2. Public Works has a start work date of October 21 for roadwork and a paving date of October 26th. Roadways to be completed are Tide Mill Road, Eastmor Lane, Holly Lane, Lamprey Terrace, Leary Lane, and Tucker Lane.
3. The contract for the printing of the Town Report was awarded to the Country Press at a cost of $4089.98 with a cost of $17.50 per page above 250 pages. Country Press was the low bidder of 6 bids received from 14 potential bidders.

4. The Town currently holds a parcel of Federal Land at the Beach. The parcel is a 20-foot right of way that runs from the old Coast Guard Lifeboat Station of Ocean Boulevard. The Board should consider requesting that the land be returned or turned over to the Town in fee simple.
5. Public Works has received the balance of the cart order and will be working on distribution.
6. A new contract for the maintenance of the Town Offices has been awarded to Capital Contractors of Londonderry as the low of three bidders for $10300 for a 12-month period.
