VII. Town Manager's Report

1. The Town has received from the Health Trust a refund of $360,423.17 for medical and dental refunds that will be distributed to the General Fund as revenue, to our retired and to our current employees who are enrolled in health and dental coverage's. Distribution will be made as soon as the Finance Department has completed calculating and verifying the distribution by groups.
2. The SRF Loan Agreement has been completed for the new sludge handling equipment at the Waste Water Treatment Plant. The loan, including interest, is for $1,661,642.37 and runs through 2034.
3. Snow removal and handling continues. We should have final figures for all cost including Public Works, Contractors, Police and Fire Departments once operations have been completed. We are still awaiting information on whether not funds will be recoverable under State and Federal Disaster Aid Programs.
4. Please remember that the Annual Town Election and ballot voting on warrant articles is Tuesday, March 10, 2015 at the Winnacunnet High School Cafeteria from 7AM to 8PM.
