

Fall 2013

Theatre Class

Ages 7-12

George is back...back again for this interactive acting class. Students will utilize improvisation, vocal techniques, dance and comedy as the young actors perform alongside some of the hardest working adult actors on the Seacoast. George Hosker-Bouley is an award winning producer, director, playwright and actor. He teaches improvisational theater throughout New England. This class will culminate with a final performance. Date and Time to be announced.

When: Wednesdays, Sept. 25th-Oct. 23rd

What: Theatre Class

Where: Hobbs House: Marston children will be escorted by Instructor. Transportation must be provided by parent for Centre school children to Hobbs house.

Theme: A Dark and Stormy Night

Time: 3-5pm (immediately after school)

Cost: $100

Sign up in person at the Hampton Rec. Dept., 2nd floor Town Hall.

Please call 926-3932 with any question.

