

HHS SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Hampton 375th Celebration

August 9-11, 2013

Check the Tuck Museum daily schedule board for any last minute additions or time changes.

Friday Evening 5-8PM

- 5PM – Museum opens with tours to the schoolhouse, barn and fire museum.
- 6:30PM - Viking re-enactors Marc Svirtunas (playing Ingvar Schildknacker) and Ian MacLaughlin (playing Olaf Vargson), will give a brief demonstration on Viking period clothing, weapons, and equipment. Don't miss the story behind Thorwald's Rock and the exciting life of Viking explorers. After their short presentation they will describe the basics of sword and shield combat and perform a short duel.
- 5-8PM - Children's crafts and games available before and after the Viking presentation.

Saturday 10AM – 7PM

- 10 AM – The Tuck Museum opens with tours to the schoolhouse, barn and fire museum.
- 11:30 AM – Leavitt Barn
Weaving demonstrations until 2 PM – NH Weaver's Guild Andrea Williams or Ginny Bridge
Tool Demonstrations– throughout the day – Dave DeGagne
"Barn Talk" – throughout the day –Chet Riley & Ben Moore members of our barn restoration team will talk about the dismantling, moving and reassembly of the 1790 Leavitt Barn
"Children in the Civil War Exhibit"
- Noon- All buildings open for viewing
- 1-4PM "School's in Session" with Miss Marston – Pat Thoen – one room district schoolhouse
- 11- 6PM – Duck decoy carving demonstration and decoy collection – Dave Weber, collector and carver shares his collection. (Dave won the 2013 NH Fish and Game Habitat Stewardship Award, Dave sets out and maintains 250 birdhouses in the Hampton salt marshes).
- 11AM – 7PM On the hour – Specialty talks and tours – Subject will vary depending on crowds, volunteers available, etc.
 - "Founding Documents" talk – Cheryl Lassiter
 - "Hampton and the Civil War" – Elly Becotte
 - Tours of Meeting House Green – HHS Volunteers
 - Gallery Talks – Betty Moore and Elly Becotte
 - "Batter-up" – Terry White, owner of Tuck's Bats, discusses the craft of making baseball bats

Throughout the day

High Wheel bicyclist – Jay Ring

"Memoirs of Hampton Beach" Bathing beauties Candy Stellmach and Kim Grondin –stories about 20th century Hampton Beach – tell yours!

"The HHS Authors Table" – book signings – books relating to local history – Cheryl Lassiter, Elly Becotte, Betty Moore and Elizabeth Aykroyd

Family Fun - hoop rolling and bean bag toss

Sunday 10- 4

- 10 AM – The museum opens with tours to the schoolhouse, barn and fire museum.
- 11:00AM – 4PM – Leavitt Barn
Weaving demonstrations until 2 PM – NH Weavers Guild
Tool Talks and Demonstrations– throughout the day – Dave DeGagne
“Barn Talk” – throughout the day –Chet Riley & Ben Moore
All buildings open for viewing
- 10AM – 4 PM Meet and greet composer, producer and multi-instrumentalist Robert McClung – McClung just released a progressive rock album “The Legend of Goody Cole” to critical acclaim. He will be playing music from the CD, demonstrating some of the instruments used in the album. There will be a display of Goody Cole memorabilia.
- 11- 4 PM Duck Carving demonstration and decoy collection – Dave Weber
- 11AM-7PM On the hour – Specialty talks and tours – Subject will vary depending on crowds, volunteers etc.
“Founding Documents” talk – Cheryl Lassiter
“Hampton and the Civil War” – Elly Becotte
Tours of Meeting House Green – HHS Volunteers
Gallery Talks – Betty Moore and Elly Becotte
“Batter-up” – Terry White, owner of Tuck’s Bats, discusses the craft of making baseball bats
- 4PM – Special Closing Ceremony on Meeting House Green – dedication of Goody Cole marker

Throughout the day

High Wheeler bicycler – Jay Ring

Memoirs – Candy Stellmach and Kim Grondin

The HHS Authors Table – book signings – books relating to local history – Cheryl Lassiter, Elly Becotte, and Betty Moore

Family Fun - Hoop rolling and bean bag toss and crafts - HHS volunteers

Now Playing In the Tuck Building - Saturday and Sunday 11AM to closing

Two DVDs on local history by filmmaker Joshua Silveira will be shown: “Salt Marsh Farming on the New Hampshire Seacoast” and “Flats, Shacks and Claws: Clamming Fishing and Lobstering on the NH Seacoast” will play alternately. Check the sign on the door for the start times and feature.

Special Guests – Saturday and Sunday

- On Tuck Field – Civil War 3rd Arkansas re-enactors encampment
- “Sutler in Camp” – Steve Salisbury will set up his Civil War Sutler store wagon (items will be available for purchase)
- On Founder’s Park – Revolutionary War encampment - Morrell’s Company of Privateers

Walk through the camps and find out what life was like for these soldiers.