

Hampton Residents

Where can you recycle “reusable” items?

WHAT	WHO	WHERE
Computer ink & toner, any Dell product, (no TVs), desktop CPUs, laptops, netbooks, tablets, modems, GPS devices, digital cameras	Staples, Best Buy, gazelle.com	North Hampton, Stratham, Seabrook, Portsmouth retail stores, or check with your favorite charity
Packaging peanuts, bubble wrap	UPS and FedEx shipping stores	UPS store North Hampton, Postal Center USA Stratham
Computers, monitors & other components	Goodwill, Staples (all locations), gazelle.com	Portsmouth or other locations
Light bulbs,(compact, fluorescent)	Ace, Tru Value Stores	All locations in NH
Cell phones	Veterans organizations or charities, Staples, gazelle.com	Check local organizations
Eye glasses, Hearing aids	Lions Club	Containers at Hampton Town Hall, drug stores, supermarkets, library
Books	The Book Outlet, N. Hampton; “Donate Books” bins; River Run bookstore, Portsmouth	Donate Books bins at various shopping center parking lots and Hampton Transfer Station, Hannaford
Reusable building materials (flooring, roofing, plumbing supplies, appliances, vanities, countertops, lumber, lighting fixtures, etc)	Habitat for Humanity ReStore	29 Fox Run Rd. Newington (formerly the roller rink near the Mall) free pickup 750-3200
Household items, clothing, Toys, DVDs, CDs, all appliances, furniture, tools, curtains, games	Epilepsy Foundation Donation Center Goodwill Industries Salvation Army Donation Ctr	251 Atlantic Ave, N. Hampton (will pick up: 888-322-8209) Lafayette Rd, Portsmouth Lafayette Rd, Portsmouth
Soiled/damaged/worn fabrics and clothing	Planet Aid boxes	Various locations, Hampton Transfer Station
Plastic bags, including those that newspapers come in	Recycling bins at grocery stores	