Re: Arrest of Elisha Escamilla

HAMPTON, NH- The Hampton Police Department has arrested and charged a Nashua, NH woman in connection to an overdose death of a Hampton, NH man.

On July 11, 2021, the Hampton Police Department responded to an unattended death on Manchester Street in the town of Hampton, NH. After an investigation, it was determined that the male victim died of acute fentanyl intoxication.

After a lengthy investigation, detectives developed probable cause that led to an arrest warrant for the person suspected of distributing the drugs to the victim that led to his death.

The alleged suspect was identified as:

Elisha L. Escamilla, 34
Nashua, NH

On May 17, 2022 at approximately 7:12pm, the Hampton Police Department took custody of Escamilla after she was arrested by the Nashua Police Department on the open arrest warrant out of the town of Hampton. Escamilla was charged with Acts Prohibited; Death Resulting, a Class A Felony.

Escamilla was booked and held on preventative detention pending her arraignment at the Rockingham County Superior Court. On May 24, 2022, Escamilla was ordered held on No Bail status pending a further hearing on June 21st 2022 at 8:30am in the Rockingham County Superior Court.

This case has been turned over to the Rockingham County Attorney's Office for prosecution. Any further media inquiries will be directed to that office.
